The A B C of PIANO PLAYING

by BORIS BERLIN

An Easy Method for Beginners in Three Stages

The first thing you will notice in the A B C of Piano Playing is that it looks interesting. Each of the 3 books is profusely illustrated with pictures and diagrams.

Besides stirring the child's imagination, these visual aids are very thorough. Nothing is left to chance. Each point is explained clearly, and the pupil quickly learns to put it into practice.

The elements of notation and keyboard work are grouped in graded lessons for the teacher to present at her own discretion.

In order to impress each point on the pupil's memory, the child is encouraged to fill in diagrams of the keyboard and staff given with each lesson. These writing tests are a valuable aid to practice between lessons when the teacher is not there to help.

The memory is strengthened further by brief reminders at each lesson of what has gone before.

The A B C of Piano Playing combines interest-power with careful grading, putting first things first, and all those other essential things which every teacher looks for in a well-planned course of instruction.

Boris Berlin, the author of the A B C of Piano Playing, is a well-known pianist teacher, examiner and festival adjudicator with a wide reputation in training children. He is a member of the Board of Examiners of the Royal Conservatory of Music Toronto, Canada.

THE MUSIC TEACHER says: "A well-designed, self-contained Course for children, presenting the elements of notation and time, simple written tests, illustrative tunes and drills. Pictorial illustrations help imagination."

BOOK I . . . 75c

First beginnings in which the child is introduced to the keyboard from the outset. Notes, clefs, time values, rests, bar lines, dotted notes, simple intervals, slurs and contrasts in tone amount.

BOOK II . . . 75c

One sharp and one flat, ties, staccato, phrasing, accidentals, both hands together, 16-bar pieces and a duet.

BOOK III . . . 75c

Introduces scales C, G, and F and broken chords followed by well-known melodies and a duet based on these features.

Thanks . . .

The Saskatchewan Association of Music Festivals and also the local Festival Executive tender their sincere thanks to the managing boards of Knox-Metropolitan United Church, Scott Collegiate, Canadian Legion Memorial Hall, First Baptist Church and St. Paul's Parish Hall, Darke Hall, First Presbyterian Church, for permission to use their buildings. Without them it would hardly be possible to hold the Festival in Regina.

Our thanks are due to Heintzman & Co., who have loaned the Heintzman pianos being used at the Festival buildings. The Association is not a money-making organization, and assistance such as the above aids our operations.

The Regina Branch, Saskatchewan Association of Music Festivals, wishes to thank the University of Saskatchewan and the Saskatchewan Arts Board, for the financial assistance extended to the Association, and also to all the firms and institutions who have used our programme as a means to convey their various messages to the public.

This young lady is growing up in a family that will always know the comforts of security. Her dad has seen to that! He has arranged a complete program of life insurance to guarantee the financial future of his family. Have you reviewed your insurance program lately?

TED KOMAR

Mr. Komar is a professional accordionist and has been on the staff of the CBC Radio since 1948, and with CBC Television since 1953. He has appeared with and conducted for Dick Contino, Florian Zabach, Enzo Stuarti, Kirby Stone Four, Cab Calloway, etc. He toured with Bob Hope and Jerry Colonna, and has sixteen years' professional experience as an accordionist. He is also a conductor, composer and arranger, and is President of A.A.T.A., Manitoba Branch.

Guest Artist for Golden Jubilee Concert

Elinore Chisholm Decker

A scholarship named for grandfather in recognition of services rendered is rarely won by a member of the family. Such was the case in 1944 and again in 1946 when Elinore Mae Chisholm won the F. W. Chisholm Scholarship at the Regina Music Festival.

In 1948 she went to Chicago to study with Sergei Tarnowsky (famed teacher of Horowitz). It was in Chicago in 1949 she gave the premiere performance of Alexander Tcherepnine's Concerto with a symphony orchestra. For this performance she had the distinct advantage of being coached by the Composer himself. He was also present the night of the performance.

When Mr. Tarnowsky went to Los Angeles he granted Elinore his personal scholarship. In Los Angeles, after her professional debut in 1953, she concertized in various cities in Southern California and also had a large class of students.

It is indeed a pleasure to welcome Elinore back home to help us celebrate our fiftieth anniversary.

Guest Artist for Golden Jubilee Concert

June Kowalchuk

June Kowalchuk, who believes that competitive performance can be the greatest asset in the moulding of a career, comes to us as an accomplished artist to prove her point. As a young girl in Regina, she gained festival experience with school choruses from Wetmore School under the direction of Merle Parsons. From then on, she became a persistent winner of solo classes in the Music Festival and to us she is truly one of our own. Such talent soon resulted in her further recognition as an outstanding artist on "Singing Stars of Tomorrow" and on the French Network of the CBC. The 1950's found her travelling widely with the Canadian Opera Company and making recital appearances across Canada. She has appeared with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra under different conductors and with the Montreal Symphony. In 1951 she appeared in a command performance before Her Royal Highness Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip.

In 1951, her home-coming recital in Regina was the occasion for the City of Regina and the Government of Saskatchewan to recognize her as an outstanding citizen and artist. In the midst of a busy life she has graciously consented to help us mark the Golden Anniversary of Music Festivals in Saskatchewan.

It is with a great deal of pleasure and pride that I welcome everyone attending the 50th Annual Music Festival in Regina.

The continued success of these festivals exemplifies not only the zeal and efficiency of the organizers, but the high degree of appreciation of fine music shown by the people in our City and Province. I am certain that the contestants at these annual festivals gain immeasurable experience and confidence. It is through such endeavours as these festivals that our great artists of tomorrow are born.

On behalf of the citizens of Regina, I offer gratitude to those who promote these festivals and a sincere welcome to everyone attending this year's festival. I hope that the success of the 1963 annual Music Festival will surpass those of the past.
